

Nisha Pachhai
Kathmandu, Nepal
Mobile: 9845201833, Email: cgtnisha@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Tri Chandra Campus, Tribhuwan University , Nepal
Master in Sociology/Anthropology (MA)-2010

Central Department of Managemnt, Tribhuwan University Kirtipur, Nepal
Master of Business Studies (MBS) - 2008

Kumarwari Multiple Collage, Tribhuwan University, Nepal
Bachelor of Business Studies (BBS) - 2005

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

FAMILY PLANNING ASSOCIATION OF NEPAL (FPAN) (Mar.2011-Present)

Program Officer- Combating Girls Trafficking Project funded by Department for International Development (DFID) and International Parents Parenthood Federation (IPPF)

Responsible for the overall management of the project:

- Prepared year wise action plans, annual program and budgets plans, quarterly and annual reports for donor and stakeholders.
- Coordinated with donor and local level partners like VDCs, local line agencies for all kind of program and financial support and approval
- Mapping of target areas and conducted research.
- Prepared M&E plan for effective supervision of the project implementation and center and local level.
- Designed micro finance program integrated with Sexual Reproductive Health Services plan for trafficked returnees and GBV survivors
- Developed "Operating Micro credit guidelines" and contributed in developing "Screening, care counseling and referral protocol for trafficked returnees".
- Participated in the design, development, pre-testing and evaluation of advocacy/awareness/communication materials on reproductive health and activities for different groups at different levels
- Conducted training at community level and organized various health camps for local people.
- Participated in different meetings, seminars, workshops relating to women's empowerment, micro finance, small enterprise development etc.

- Collected statistical/narrative reports from the field, analyzed and prepared periodic reports including annual report as prescribed and requested by the donor and submitted through online EMIS system.

FAMILY PLANNING ASSOCIATION OF NEPAL (FPAN)

(Nov.2008-Feb.2011)

Project Supervisor- Combating Girls Trafficking Project funded by Department for International Development (DFID) and International Parents Parenthood Federation (IPPF)

Responsible for the overall management of the project:

- Monitor and Supervise all district/ VDC level activities and field staffs.
- Plan, design, coordinate, and conduct awareness program (meeting, rally, and training) in the community level.
- Prepare year wise action plan and Budget for the implementation of the project in district.
- Coordination with District level Government and Non-Government organizations.
- Participate in different meetings and seminars related to women's empowerment and trafficking issue for the effective program implementation and coordination.
- Collect statistical/ narrative reports from the field and prepare periodic reports including annual report as prescribed and requested donor and submit them to project coordinator.

FAMILY PLANNING ASSOCIATION OF NEPAL (FPAN)

(Mar.2005-Mar.2008)

Project Supervisor- Combating Gender Based violence Project funded by Department for International Development (DFID) and International Parents Parenthood Federation (IPPF)

Responsible for the overall management of the project:

- Supervision of family planning and gender based violence programs being conducted in the district through filed monitoring, reporting and documentation.
- Conduct training, seminars and workshops on Reproductive Health, Management Information System, Gender Issues and Women's Rights for the Line agencies (ABC Nepal, Maiti Nepal, Mahila Bikash etc), in-house medical staffs (CMA/ANMs), community workers, community leaders, community counselors, vulnerable people and target groups.
- Responsible for conducting Gender Based Violence during Pregnancy Project: Formation of women's group suffered with gender-based violence and to sensitize them in women's rights and gender issues. The groups are supported with emergency medical care, legal support, micro-credit programs and other skill development activities.
- Coordination with District level Government and Non-Government organizations.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- Research conducted on Indicative Research on SRH Needs, Including Safe Abortion of Trafficked Returnees and Young Women, 2009
- Research conducted on a base line survey on Anti Trafficking Project, FPAN, 2008

WORKSHOPS & TRAINING

- workshop on "Supervision and Monitoring Techniques" organized by Family Planning Association of Nepal.(June 2005)

- Training on “Progress Report writing “organized by Family Planning Association of Nepal.(May 2006)
- Training on "Social mobilization and Leadership" organized by Family Planning Association of Nepal. December 2006).
- Training on "Group Dynamic and Micro Credit Management" organized by Family Planning Association of Nepal.(December 2006)
- Training on "Behavior Change Communication Skills" organized by Family Planning Association of Nepal.(December 2006)
- Training on "Peer Educator" organized by B.P. Memorial Health Foundation. (December 2004)
- Training on "Gender Mainstreaming" organized by Women Development Office, Nawalparasi District (June 2006)
- Workshop on "YFSRH, Gender, Rights, Human Trafficking" by Family Planning Association of Nepal (June, 2009)
- "Orientation on United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 and 1820" , Rural community service Center, Makwanpur.(Jan.2011)

LANGUAGES

Nepali – Native, Fluent in English, Good in Hindi

PERSONAL DETAILS

Name: Nisha Pachhai
Date of Birth: 10th Feb. 1982
Permanent Address: Nayabelhani-8, Arunkhola,Nawalparasi

References:

Ms. Rekha Rana
 Project Coordinator
 Family Planning Association of Nepal, Lalitpur
 Email: fpangt@fpan.org.np
 Phone: +9779841416295 (M)

Mr. Murari Raila
 Branch Manager
 Family Planning Association of Nepal, Makwanpur Branch
 Email: fpanmpur@ntc.net.np
 Phone: +977057-520745(Off)